

Brooks Construction Co., Inc.

COLD FEED BINS CONFINED SPACE PROCEDURE

1. The type of work to be performed is routine maintenance?  YES  NO
2. The employee(s) entering the confined space have received the annual training?  YES  NO
3. All necessary personal protective equipment will be used? (Including but not limited to: hardhat, safety glasses, etc.)  YES  NO
4. An attendant (hole watcher) will be stationed outside the space entrance and has secured proper communications with the entrant?  YES  NO
5. Is all work going to be performed by Brooks Construction Co., Inc. employees?  YES  NO
6. Has the cold feed bin ramps been gated or chained off to prevent the loader from dumping a load?  YES  NO
7. Has material been removed to provide a safe work area?  YES  NO
8. The feeder belt has been locked out to prevent accidental power up?  YES  NO
9. Ventilation may be used before and during confined space work to cause air flow?  YES  NO
10. The grating has been removed safely?  YES  NO
11. Work safely and cautiously to prevent accidents?  YES  NO

Note: a lifeline will not be required due to additional hazards

If any of the above points are marked no, the space will be regarded as a permit required space and the safety department must be notified. If the above points are all marked yes, the space is considered a non-permit required space and work may proceed.

_____
Plant Site

_____
Lead operator's signature

_____
Date      Time

_____
Entrant's signature

_____
Date      Time

Brooks Construction Co., Inc.

COLD FEED BINS CONFINED SPACE PROCEDURE

1. The type of work to be performed is routine maintenance?  YES  NO
2. The employee(s) entering the confined space have received the annual training?  YES  NO
3. All necessary personal protective equipment will be used? (Including but not limited to: hardhat, safety glasses, etc.)  YES  NO
4. An attendant (hole watcher) will be stationed outside the space entrance and has secured proper communications with the entrant?  YES  NO
5. Is all work going to be performed by Brooks Construction Co., Inc. employees?  YES  NO
6. Has the cold feed bin ramps been gated or chained off to prevent the loader from dumping a load?  YES  NO
7. Has material been removed to provide a safe work area?  YES  NO
8. The feeder belt has been locked out to prevent accidental power up?  YES  NO
9. Ventilation may be used before and during confined space work to cause air flow?  YES  NO
10. The grating has been removed safely?  YES  NO
11. Work safely and cautiously to prevent accidents?  YES  NO

Note: a lifeline will not be required due to additional hazards

If any of the above points are marked no, the space will be regarded as a permit required space and the safety department must be notified. If the above points are all marked yes, the space is considered a non-permit required space and work may proceed.

_____
Plant Site

_____
Lead operator's signature

_____
Date      Time

_____
Entrant's signature

_____
Date      Time

Fax completed form to Fort Wayne Office, Attn: Safety Director (260-469-6109) and retain this copy for your records.